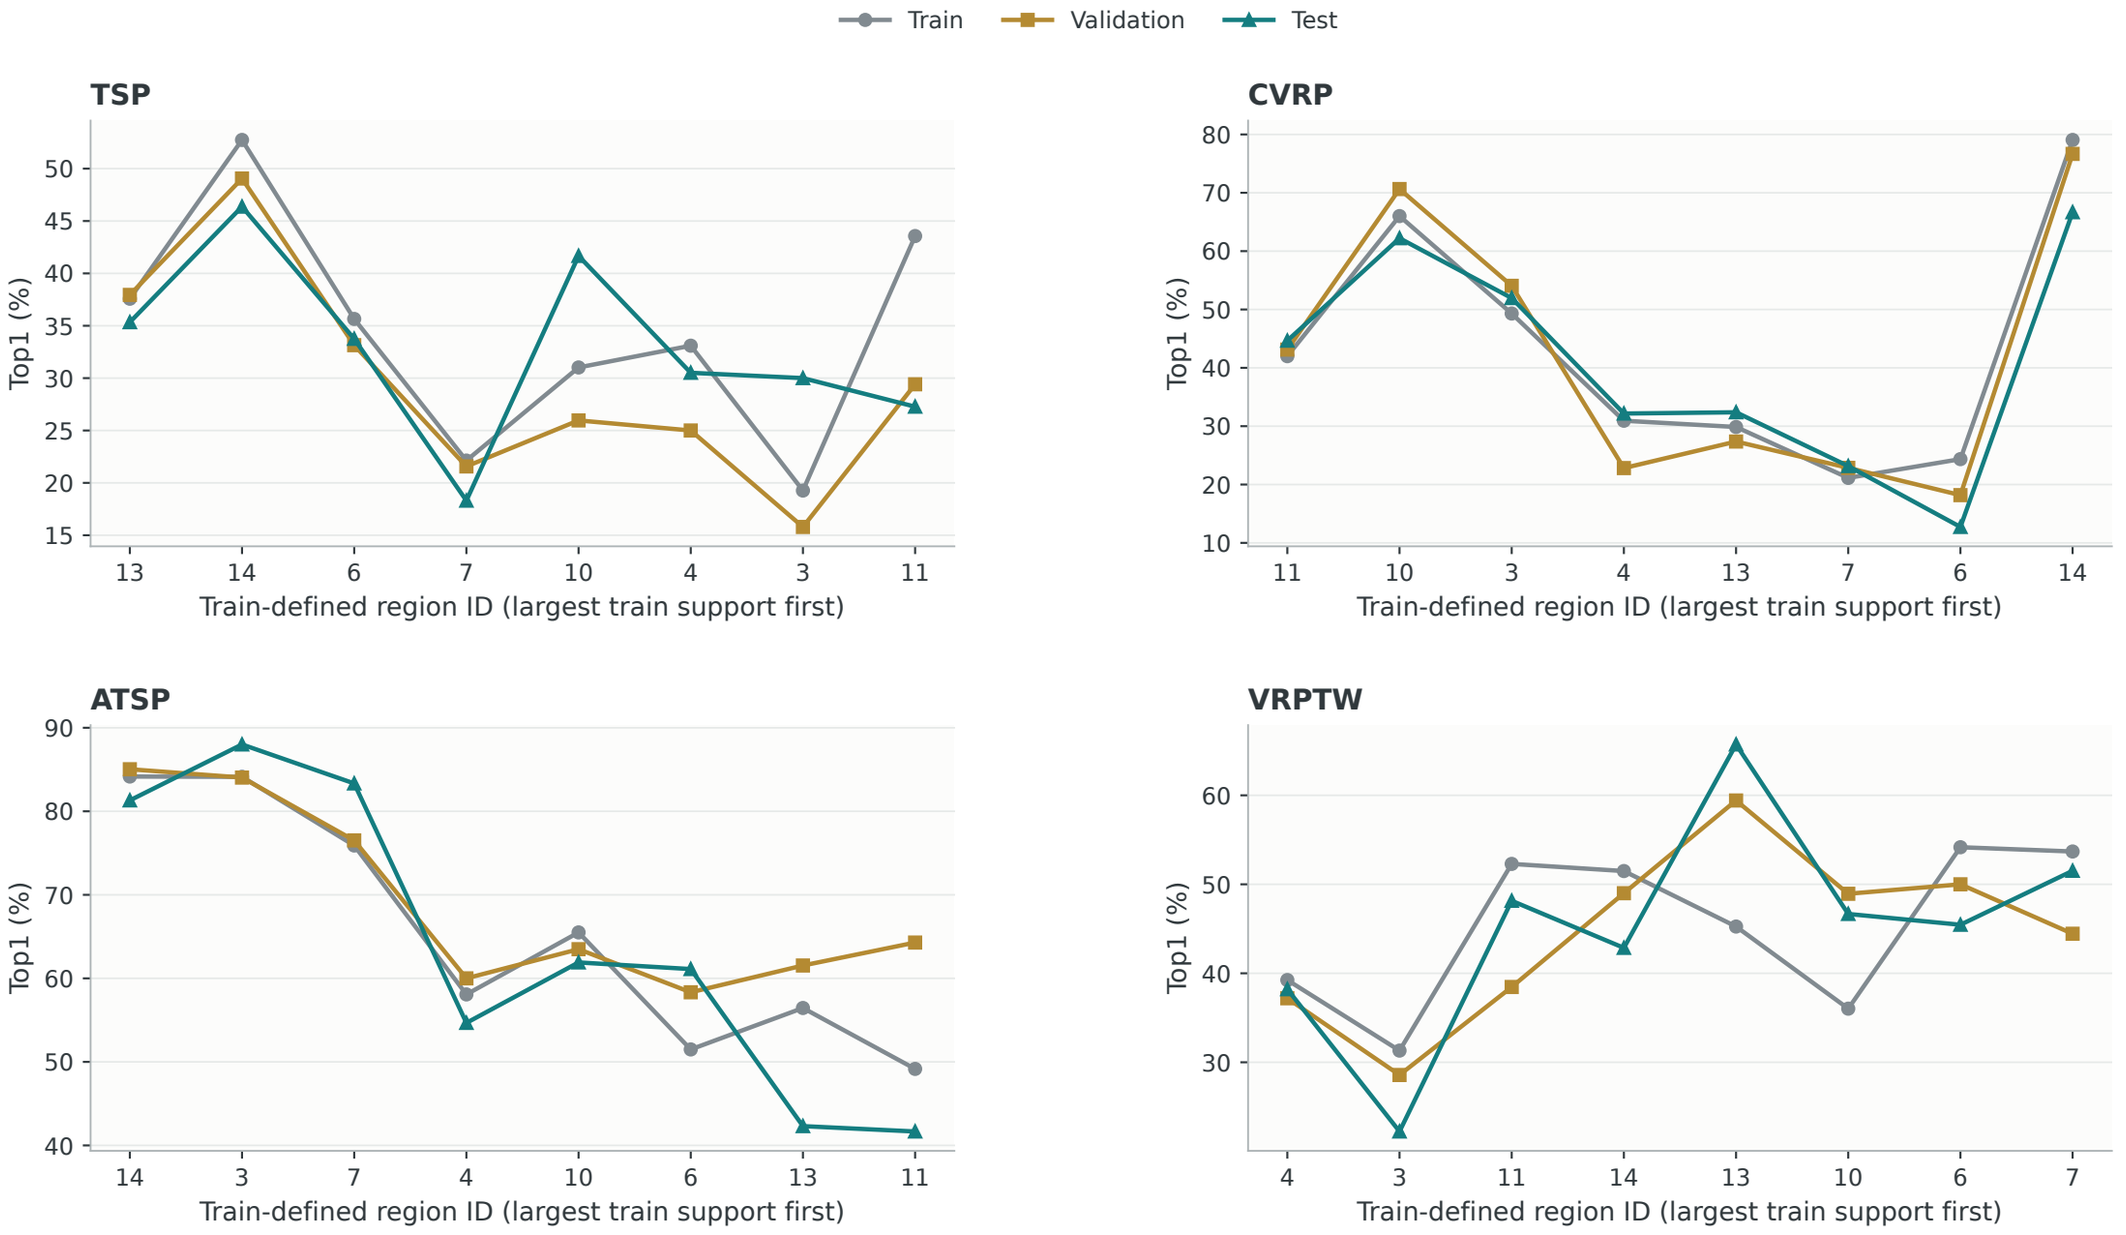
Train-defined advantage regions: held-out transfer

Regions must be fitted on train only. Observed holdout metrics are not a new trained selector.



Up to eight regions per task, chosen by train support only, with held-out gaps retained. This plot is conditional on the exported region definition and metric; absence of export is recorded as skipped, not treated as absence of signal.